

About this document

This PDF file is a rough approximation of the second part of Priestley's Chart of Biography (the first edition of 1764). It is an index to the 2000 individuals in the Chart of Biography itself.

Annotations in grey within [square brackets] indicate differences between the 1764 and 1778 editions. They also indicate names which were in the 1764 addenda called Names omitted in the Catalogue. Incidentally, the Names omitted included Christ – which must have been embarrassing for a devout Christian, indeed a minister, such as Priestley.

Each name is followed by a date – usually either d. (died) or fl. (flourished) – and one or more alphabetic indicators of the role of the individual. I will add Priestley's introduction and explanation of these when I have time. Many entries take this form: Charles the Bald. d. 876. 53 – meaning that Charles the Bald died in 876 at the age of 53.

This file preserves the line-breaks and pagination, and roughly imitates the layout, of the original. The page numbers are as in the original. In the 1778 edition the page numbering is continuous throughout the volume, but in this 1764 edition each section has its own numbering. Spellings have been preserved, but all long s's have been changed to the modern form.
